Screening and charges

PL01 Eligibility

Initial personal loan screening requires age 21 to 60 inclusive, net monthly income at least INR 30000, six months with the current employer and a credit score of at least 700. Meeting these conditions does not guarantee sanction.

PL02 Debt ratio

Debt ratio = $(\text{existing monthly EMIs} + \text{proposed monthly EMI}) / \text{net monthly income} \times 100$. Up to 40 percent passes this screening condition. Above 40 percent requires manual credit review, not automatic rejection or approval.

PL03 Pricing

Indicative annual interest is 11 to 16 percent. Final rate depends on credit assessment. Processing fee is 1 percent of sanctioned principal, with a minimum INR 1000. All fees in this training document are final amounts; do not calculate additional taxes.

PL04 Loan limits

Personal loan amounts range from INR 50000 to INR 1000000, with tenure of 12 to 60 months. No foreclosure fee or insurance rule is specified.

Documents and worked examples

PL05 Application documents

Require a completed application, branch verified KYC, three latest salary slips and six latest monthly bank statements. Do not request uploads containing full identifiers in public chat.

PL06 Decision timeline

Decision target is five working days after complete documents and verification. Manual credit review cases have no guaranteed decision date. A working day is Monday to Friday excluding bank holidays. The holiday calendar is not supplied, so do not invent exact completion dates.

PL07 Worked calculation

Income INR 60000, existing EMI INR 12000 and proposed EMI INR 15000 give a debt ratio of 45 percent and require manual review. A sanctioned loan of INR 200000 has an INR 2000 processing fee. For INR 50000, fee is INR 1000 because the minimum applies.

PL08 Decision boundaries

The assistant cannot approve a loan, promise a rate or disbursement, change KYC, block cards or authorise refunds. Account and complaint rules are in Accounts and Service Policy. Home loan rates and investment advice are outside this personal loan document.
